

John Hammer, M.D.

John completed his residency in Internal Medicine and a Fellowship in Infectious Diseases at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center in 1997. In 2003, he received his diploma in Tropical Diseases from the renowned Gorgas Institute of Tropical Medicine located in Lima, Peru. He is a Co-Director of Global Travel Health and an active member of both the International Society of Travel Medicine and the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene. He has worked overseas in developing countries in association with the International Center for Equal Healthcare Access providing instruction to healthcare personnel in the treatment of HIV. He enjoys working in the developing world, and simply traveling whenever he gets the opportunity.